PROFILE

I am a cybersecurity student, having strong beliefs and interest in network defense, system security, hands-on problem-solving projects, and research methodologies. Over the past few years, I have been actively building my technical skills through real-world lab work, personal projects, and group collaborations. I am now looking for an internship where I can apply what I have learned, work closely with your strong team, and grow through practical experience. I am committed, reliable, and always having big curious to learn more whatever what challenges there are, especially when it comes to new security threats and the technologies used to stop them.
